Dear Senator Warren and Representative Krishnamoorthi:

I write in response to your letter dated June 9, 2026 concerning Kathryn Ruemmler.

In February 2026, Ms. Ruemmler announced that, effective June 30, she would be stepping down from her roles as chief legal officer and general counsel of The Goldman Sachs Group, Inc. (“Goldman Sachs” or the “firm”). As we recently communicated to the firm, Ms. Ruemmler will retire from those roles on June 30 as previously announced; I will serve as acting general counsel; and Ms. Ruemmler will serve in an advisory role as senior counselor during the transition period leading up to the appointment of a new chief legal officer.

Ms. Ruemmler’s continued assistance will help ensure that there is an orderly and effective transition for critical risk management roles at Goldman Sachs.

Sincerely,

Michael Bosworth
Deputy General Counsel
The Goldman Sachs Group, Inc.
